Sir,

With reference to your Official Memorandum no 6095-103/1685 dated the 26 instant, forwarding copy of letter from the First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore, I have the honor to report that no one is authorized to trade in firearms and that there are only two shops licensed to sell dynamite and ammunition in this District both situated in Chintamany. They are owned by petty traders and the accounts kept by them show that the sales were small and insignificant. Hitherto no special precautions were taken to control exports by these shops as there was no occasion for the same and as the Rules did not contain any provisions on the subject.

Sir,

With reference to your Memo No. 6095-103/J. 685, dated 26th November 1897, I have the honor to report that no cases have till now begun brought to notice of any export of arms into British India. Under Section 6 of the Arms Regulation, control by means of a transport license is exercised over transport from one place to another within the state, though even such instances rarely if ever occur.
